

INDIGO INKBLOTS

VOLUME ONE -- SPECIAL ISSUE

ANNUAL MEETING

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

The annual fall meeting will be held on Friday, 12 November 1993. INDIGO is fortunate to be meeting at the IUPUI University Library auditorium. With the map enclosed, everyone should be able to find the meeting site with minimal trouble. The enclosed map indicates parking options. Please note that holders of a valid IU parking sticker can use most campus lots.

Registration is due by 1 November to Gail Winsmore. As indicated on the registration form, contact Bob Hinton at IUPUI if you have questions about special needs.

MEMBERSHIP!! MEMBERSHIP!! MEMBERSHIP!!

Please take the opportunity today to renew or begin a membership in INDIGO. Membership gives you a voice and the opportunity to contribute and serve. The membership form should be returned to Marianne Mason at the IU School of Law. Sorry for not being able to send conference registration and membership to the same address.

NEWSLETTER NAME CHANGE

Seems that there is talk abroad in the land that INKBLOTS as a newsletter name just doesn't cut it with the membership. No one knows the origin of the name (now). So, come to the annual meeting with your pithy best to re-christen this communication giant.

Indiana Networking
for Documents & Information of Government Organizations

As INDIGO prepares to enter its 2nd full year of existence, please consider renewing your INDIGO membership or joining INDIGO for the first time. Your $5 membership helps INDIGO continue to grow to provide you with:

--creation of a mentoring system of depository libraries throughout the state,

--notices of workshops and training opportunities (e.g. 1990 census, CD-ROM products, Internet resources),

--lobbying to influence decisions about dissemination and access to state government information,

--opportunities to network with other document and data center librarians throughout Indiana,

--efforts to enhance the visibility and image of government/data specialists in library and information centers,

--and more...
